ARLINGTON -- Rev. Bob Davis, chaplain of Parkland Hospital, will be guest lecturer Thursday night for the short study course at The University of Texas at Arlington on heart transplants.

Rev. Davis, who has served as counselor to families of patients involved in organ transplants, will discuss the moral and ethical considerations of this new surgical procedure.

The study course was organized by The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas as a part of the Free University program of U.T.A. The session will begin at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, March 6, in Room 202 of Science Hall on the U.T.A. campus. Coordinator for the course is Frank Chappell, Director of Medical Information for the medical school.
