Dr. Harris Busch is featured speaker at Eighth Annual Graduate Student Research Forum on April 29.*

Dr. Harris Busch, professor and chairman of Pharmacology and director of the Cancer Research Center at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, is to be the featured speaker at the eighth Annual Graduate Student Research Forum at The University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas on Thursday, April 29, at 1:45 p.m.

His topic will be "Aspects of the Molecular Biology of Cancer."

Preceding Dr. Busch's address, six graduate students from the UT Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, one of the Health Science Center's three components, will present their award-winning papers that were chosen from 19 submitted abstracts. These include Raymond Chau, Cell Biology graduate student, who will speak on "Molecular Localization of Monoamine Oxidase on the Outer and Inner Surfaces of the Outer Membrane of Rat Liver Mitochondria;" Robert Gregg, Clinical Psychology, "Passivity, Assertion and Aggression: Assertive Training with Two Types of Institutionalized Criminal Offenders;" John Moltz, Physiology, "Hypothalamic Influence over Insulin and Glucagon Release;" Shelley Payne, Microbiology, "Role of Iron in Virulence of Gonococci and Meningococci;" Janice Rice, Biochemistry, "Phospholipid Biosynthesis in Lung Lamellar Bodies;" and Joan Streilein, Microbiology, "Specific Inhibition of Hamster B-Cell Mitogenesis by an Isologous Serum Factor."
