

NEWS ITEM - SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

June 10, 1954

Dr. Arthur Grollman, Professor of Experimental Medicine and Chairman of that Department in Southwestern Medical School of The University of Texas, will discuss "The Use of the Nephrectomized Animal in a Study of Endocrine Problems" at the meeting of the Society for Endocrinology and will also attend the meeting of the American Medical Association in San Francisco, California, on June 17-23, 1954.

G. N. Aagaard, M.D.
Dean