DALLAS -- The University of Texas (Southwestern) Medical School at Dallas will pay tribute Tuesday (Dec. 16) to 26 staff employees whose combined service at the institution totals nearly 500 years.

The employees with 15 or more years' service will be guests of Dr. Charles C. Sprague, dean of the school, at a luncheon in the El Dorado Room of the Marriott Motor Hotel, 2101 Stemmons Fwy.

Dr. A.J. Gill, longtime faculty member and former dean of the medical school, will speak and Dr. Sprague will present service pins and certificates to the honored guests. Several senior faculty members also will attend.

Employees to be honored for 25 years' service with the institution, which was founded July 1, 1943, are Harry Sheaner, Miss Anne Rucker, L.O. Kennedy, Elwood Beasley and Mrs. Violet Baird.

Those to receive recognition for 20 years' service are Surone E. Stuart, Mrs. Billie H. Cantrall (correct), Mrs. Eleanor C. Reinmiller, Miss Juanita Epperson, Mrs. Doris Coker and Miss Catharine Schulze.
