

ASSOCIATES CORPORATION PLEDGES $150,000 TO UT SOUTHWESTERN

DALLAS—June 11, 1993—Associates Corporation of North America, a Dallas-based financial services company, has pledged $150,000 to The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Reece A. Overcash Jr. said the company's contribution is a non-specified gift that may be used to strategically support the medical center's research funding plans.

"This year The Associates is celebrating its 75th Anniversary. Our gift commemorates the contributions of our employees to our long tradition of success and their commitment to the future," said Overcash. "By supporting the important work of UT Southwestern, we can help improve the quality of life in our hometown as well as recognize the proud heritage of both The Associates and the medical center."

Dr. Kern Wildenthal, president of UT Southwestern, said the gift will be added to the $150 million Fund for Molecular Research campaign.

The Associates, part of the Financial Services Group of Ford Motor Co., is the second largest independent finance company in the United States. It provides consumer financial services, specialized commercial finance and leasing, and insurance in the United States, Japan, the United Kingdom and Canada. It employs more than 3,000 people in the Dallas area.
