

September 24, 1952

NEWS ITEMS - SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Members of the medical art faculty of Southwestern Medical School of The University of Texas will attend the annual meeting of the Association of Medical Illustrators, September 29 to October 1, in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Ruth Sanders, associate professor of medical art, will read a paper entitled "Higher Education for the Medical Illustrator" by Professor Lewis Waters, chairman of the medical art department at Southwestern.

Mrs. Sanders and Miss Patricia O'Neill, assistant professor, will present an exhibit of medical art drawings and various techniques for their production. They will also present a 16 millimeter motion picture film produced by Professor Waters.

A.M.I. is an international association whose members make up the preponderance of all medical artists in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and several other countries.

Included on the program are the annual Brodel Memorial Lecture and other presentations by some of the outstanding medical illustrators of our time.

##

Dr. Gladys Fashena, Professor of Pediatrics at Southwestern Medical School of The University of Texas, discussed "Diagnosis of Congenital Heart Disease" and "The Problem of Vomiting in Infancy" at the meeting of the Texas Academy of General Practice in San Antonio and participated in a television program on WOAI.

##

Dr. Harry Spence, Clinical Professor of Urology and Chairman of the Urology Division in the Department of Surgery at Southwestern Medical School of The University of Texas, has been elected President of the South Central Section of the American Urological Association. At the annual meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas, on September 29-30 and October 1 Dr. Spence will discuss: "Nephro-ureterectomy in Infancy and Childhood, Indications and Technique."

Dr. G. N. Aagaard, M.D.
Dean