Food Service director named for UT Health Science Center.*

DALLAS--Jerry Shreve, formerly manager of food service operations for Rochester Institute of Technology, has accepted the position of director of food service for The University of Texas Health Science Center.

Shreve replaces Vernon Wiard, who had directed food service operations at both the health science center and at The University of Texas at Dallas. Mr. Wiard now will work exclusively for UTD.

Prior to his eight years at Rochester, Mr. Shreve was with the Howard Johnson company for five years. He has a bachelors degree in food administration and tourist industries from Rochester Institute and an associate degree in applied science (food service administration) from Erie Community College in Buffalo.

Mr. Shreve is 34, has a wife and two children.

At the health science center he will supervise food operations of the Gallery Cafeteria and the Alfred W. Harris Faculty-Alumni Center.
