* Associate dean appointed at UT
Southwestern's Allied Health
Sciences School

DALLAS -- Nancy C. Fain, Ph.D., has been appointed associate dean of the Southwestern Allied Health Sciences School, at The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. She will be responsible for student affairs, recruitment and admissions activities.

Fain hopes to strengthen minority recruitment, establish ties with local businesses to create job pipelines for graduates and develop a summer program for junior high and high school students who may be interested in health careers.

Fain received a bachelor's degree from Cheyney University in Cheyney, Pa., a master's degree from Texas Southern University in Houston, and a Ph.D. in home economics and higher education administration from Oklahoma State University in Stillwater. She has been working in higher education since 1974 at universities in Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Texas, Virginia and Illinois.
