DALLAS--Mrs. Violet M. Baird, formerly librarian of The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School library and now librarian emeritus, is the compiler of "Texas Medical History in the Library of The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School."

This annotated catalog lists 246 items in the working collection. Monographs, pamphlets and documents are recorded and discussed.

Carl Herzog, noted book designer of El Paso, collaborated in the design of the compilation.

The Friends of the Medical Library financed production of the work, which is available from the medical school library administration for $10.
