New vice president for administration at UTHSCD.

DALLAS--Jack D. Wheeler, former executive assistant to the president, has been appointed vice president for administration of The University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas.

UTHSCD President Charles C. Sprague said the appointment was effective September 1.

Wheeler had been vice president for public affairs at North Texas State University in Denton before joining the Health Science Center in Dallas.

"Mr. Wheeler is an extremely capable administrator whose work has been and will continue to be of great benefit to the Health Science Center," commented Dr. Sprague.

In his new capacity, Wheeler will be administratively responsible for the operations of the Library, the Department of Biomedical Communications, Animal Resources Center, and the Computer Resources Center, as well as continuing to be primary liaison officer to various local, state and federal agencies.

Wheeler is immediate past grand president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, a national social fraternity and currently is president of that organization's Educational Foundation. He was a 1976 recipient of the Outstanding Service Award presented by faculty and students of NTSU, a member and past president of the Dallas Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

At North Texas, Wheeler also held the positions of Special Assistant to the President, Associate Vice President, Acting Dean of Students, Associate Dean of Students and Director of Student Personnel. Prior to that he had been assistant personnel manager for the Southwestern Region of State Farm Insurance Co. and student counselor at NTSU.

The administrator received his Masters Degree in Business Administration and his Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from North Texas.

He was selected outstanding non-commissioned officer of his unit in the US Air Force Reserves.
