DALLAS--Joe Kintz, a third-year student at The University of Texas (Southwestern) Medical School at Dallas, has been awarded a $1,175 fellowship which will permit him to assist for 12 weeks this summer at a hospital in Honduras.

Kintz, of 5138 Rawlins, Dallas, is one of 29 American medical students selected to receive Smith Kline & French Foreign Fellowships from the Association of American Medical Colleges.

Kintz will be assigned to the Hospital de Occident in Santa Rosa de Copan, near the northern border of Honduras. He is scheduled to leave for Honduras June 6.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, Kintz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kintz of Lake Arthur, N. Mex.

The Smith Kline & French fellowships program, now in its eleventh year, is supported by a grant from the Philadelphia manufacturer of medicines and health-related products.
