SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL SCHOOL GRADUATES NAMED TO INTERNSHIPS ACROSS THE NATION

DALLAS -- The 96 brand new doctors of medicine who will receive diplomas June 2 from The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas will spread out across the nation from Hawaii to New England to begin their period of internship immediately following graduation.

Commencement exercises are scheduled Monday, June 2, at McFarlin Memorial Auditorium, SMU.

Half of the class will intern in Texas, including 32 men who will serve their period of post-graduate training in Dallas hospitals.

Internships for Southwestern graduates in Dallas will be: Parkland Memorial Hospital, 8; Veteran's Administration Hospital, 11; Baylor Hospital, 9; Children's Hospital, 3; and Methodist Hospital, 1.

Six of the graduates will go to Memorial Medical Center at Corpus Christi. Eight will go to San Antonio, spread among three hospitals in the Alamo City. John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth will draw two Southwestern graduates and one new doctor will intern at Ben Taub Hospital in Houston.

Eight graduates will go to Salt Lake City, Utah, to intern at the University of Utah Affiliated Hospital.
