DALLAS--Mrs. Violet M. Baird, longtime librarian and now historical bibliographer for The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, has been named winner of the Murray Gottlieb Prize for the best essay on American medical history by a medical librarian.

The $100 award, presented at the national meeting of the Medical Library Association in New York, is sponsored by Old Hickory Bookshop, Brinklow, Md.

Mrs. Baird's winning essay, to be published in the Bulletin of the Medical Library Association, is entitled, "Nineteenth Century Medical Journalism in Texas; with a journal checklist."
