WYNDHAM INTERNATIONAL CREATES MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP AT UT SOUTHWESTERN WITH $150,000 GIFT

DALLAS – April 10, 2003 – Wyndham International, Inc., one of the largest lodging and hospitality companies in the country, has given $150,000 to create the Wyndham International Inc. Scholarship Fund for minority students at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. The gift was given to Southwestern Medical Foundation.

A Dallas-based company, Wyndham International owns, leases, manages and franchises hotels and resorts in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and Europe.

“We respect Wyndham as a corporate leader in Dallas and around the world, so we were particularly honored when the company stepped forward to support a student-benefit program at the medical center,” said W. Plack Carr Jr., president of Southwestern Medical Foundation. “The new Wyndham Scholarship program will touch the lives of many students in years to come, and we are very grateful for this generous corporate support for medical education.”
