UT Southwestern faculty honored

DALLAS – April 30, 2004 – Faculty members from UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas recently were recognized for outstanding achievement in their fields.

Dr. Kenneth Altshuler, former chairman of psychiatry at UT Southwestern, was named one of three recipients of the 2004 Spirit of CONTACT awards from CONTACT Crisis Line, a 24-hour Dallas-area help line. Dr. Altshuler, a professor of psychiatry, was honored for his significant contributions to the field of mental health, in both research and fund raising.

Dr. George Lister, chairman of pediatrics at UT Southwestern, will receive the Maureen Andrew Mentorship Award from the Society for Pediatric Research during the society's annual May meeting in San Francisco for his exemplary mentorship of trainees and junior faculty. "Dr. Lister has demonstrated sustained excellence as a mentor," said Dr. Norman Rosenblum, chairman of the award selection committee.
