The North Texas chapter of the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education has voted to add to scholarship funds for two former University of Texas executives, Millicent Green Cummings and Lynn Swann Haag. Both women were killed in accidents last year.

At the time of her death, Haag was in charge of communications for the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. She is the former director of News and Information for The University of Texas at Arlington. Cummings held the same position with The University of Texas at Dallas. Both had been active in CASE.

Money was given toward scholarships at UT Arlington and T.C.U., Haag's alma mater, in her name. Funds were donated to scholarship funds at The University of Texas at Dallas and the national office of Women in Communications, Inc., in Cumming's name.
