

October 12, 1992

MEDICAL CENTER FACULTY HONORED

DALLAS--Four faculty members at The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas have been recognized recently for their contributions to their fields.

Dr. Roseanne Armitage, assistant professor of psychiatry, has been elected to the executive committee of the Canadian Sleep Society. She also was appointed to the board of directors of the Association for the Study of Dreams.

Dr. Rebecca Gruchalla, instructor of allergy, has been awarded the Boehringer Ingelheim joint award from the American Academy of Allergy and Immunology and the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Disease. She also has been named the 1992 recipient of the Allen & Hanbury's Basic Research Award in Allergy and Immunology.

Perri Sparks, assistant professor of biomedical communications, was elected president of the Association of Medical Illustrators, the national professional society of medical artists.

Dr. Steven E. Wilson, assistant professor of ophthalmology, received the William and Mary Greve International Research Scholar Award from Research to Prevent Blindness.

###

NOTE: The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas comprises Southwestern Medical School, Southwestern Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, Southwestern Allied Health Sciences School, affiliated teaching hospitals and outpatient clinics.