Berger receives fellowship award.

DALLAS--Mark L. Berger, M.D., a postdoctoral trainee in Liver-Gastroenterology at UTHSCD, is a 1984 recipient of the American Liver Foundation Postdoctoral Research Fellowship Award.

Berger and principal investigator Burton Combes, M.D. will be studying how liver cells may be damaged and how they may protect themselves from suffering injury or repair an injury. The ALF is the nation's largest private contributor to liver research.
