

September 21, 1992

MEDICAL CENTER FACULTY HONORED

DALLAS--Five faculty members at The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas were honored recently for contributions to their fields.

Dr. Bruce R. Carr, professor of obstetrics and gynecology, has been named chair of the Reproductive Endocrinology Study Section of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Division of Research Grants. Carr holds the Paul C. MacDonald Professorship in Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Dr. G. Patrick Clagett, professor of surgery and head of vascular surgery, has been appointed to the editorial board of Stroke, the American Heart Association journal of cerebral circulation. He also serves on the editorial boards of The Journal of Vascular Surgery, Perspectives in Vascular Surgery and Vascular Surgery Outlook.

Dr. William L. Meyerhoff, chairman of otorhinolaryngology, has received the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery's Honor Award. The award recognizes outstanding service to the organization. Meyerhoff holds the Arthur E. Meyerhoff Professorship in Otorhinolaryngology.

(More)

Faculty honored--2

Mel Stills, assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery, has been elected president of the International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics.

Ellen Heck, administrative director of UT Southwestern's Transplant Services Center, has been elected chair of the Eye Bank Association of America. She is the first non-physician elected to the office.

###

NOTE: The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas comprises Southwestern Medical School, Southwestern Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, Southwestern Allied Health Sciences School, affiliated teaching hospitals and outpatient clinics.